

Accomplishment: Knowing you've done well

Adventure: Doing things that involve risk and excitement

Aesthetics: Appreciating the beauty of things and ideas

Affiliation: Being recognized as part of a group

Appearance: Being concerned for your own attractiveness or that of your surroundings

Authority: having control over the activities of destiny of others

Broadmindedness: Being open-minded, tolerant, concerned for equality

Community: Living in a location that fits your lifestyle and/or being involved in community

Competency: Being capable and effective

Competition: Engaging in activities that pit your abilities against others

Cooperation: Living/Working in harmony with others

Creativity: Being innovative, imaginative, creating something new, and using your imagination

Education/Learning: Appreciating learning, being in an environment that promotes learning

Family: Caring about parents, children and relatives

Fast Pace: Always being on the go, high activity, work done rapidly

Flexibility: Being adaptable

Freedom: Having free choice of thoughts & actions

Friendship: Developing/maintaining close relationships with others

Health: Feeling emotional/physical/spiritual well being

Helping Others: Working for the benefits of others

Honesty: Being truthful, sincere

Independence: Doing things on your own

Influence: Being in a position to change other's attitudes or opinions

Integrity: Acting in a way that reflects your beliefs and values

Intellectual Stimulation: Doing things that require thought and reasoning

Intellectual Status: Being known as an expert, having intellectual prowess

Management: Planning and supervising work

Material Status: Having financial or material possessions

Moral Fulfillment: Contributing to a set of moral standards

Order: Being neat and organized

Peace: Being free of conflict

Power: Having influence and the ability to act on it

Prestige: Having status and respect in your genre or line of work

Recognition: Getting approval and prestige for what you do

Security: Being free from concern for loss of resources, being certain of something

Self-expression: Using natural talent or abilities to express who you are

Travel: Exploring new locations

Variety: Not always doing the same thing 1